Mr. John Cowles
The Star and Tribune

Dear John:

It was very thoughtful of you to write me as you did about the Thanksgiving or Christmas turkeys from the Minneapolis Star and Tribune game farm, "Glendalough."

I fully understand why I will not receive one and I want to take this opportunity to express my own personal thanks again for the excellent turkeys that you have given me in the past years.

With every best wish.

Sincerely,

Allen W. Dulles

JOHN COWLES
THE STAR AND TRIBUNE
MINNEAPOLIS, MINN.

October 27, 1959

Dear Allen:

For some years it has been my pleasure to send Thanksgiving or Christmas turkeys from the Minneapolis Star and Tribune game farm, "Glendalough," to friends throughout the country.

The problem of the delivery of the turkeys has become so increasingly difficult and complicated that, along with a change in the management and operations of the game farm, I have reluctantly concluded to discontinue sending turkeys to anyone not living in the Minneapolis-St. Paul area, where deliveries can be made by one of our own trucks.

This note is simply to let you know, well in advance, that to my deep regret Glendalough turkeys won't be shipped to my friends in other states this year.

With warm regards and best wishes, I am

Sincerely,

Mr. Allen W. Dulles
